

Grading Rubric

ASSIGNMENTS &amp; DISCUSSION BOARD EXPECTATIONS*
Please follow the following rubric when answering the weekly Forum Posts & submitting weekly assignments.
CRITERIA	Does Not Meet Expectation  ☒ Please see feedback or comments and resubmit	Meets Expectation  ☑ Nice Work!	Exceeds Expectation  ☑ Nice Work!
RELEVANCE	Does not respond directly to the discussion or assignment question(s)	Responds directly to the discussion or assignment question(s)	Responds directly to the discussion or assignment question(s) and includes pertinent, connected, or applicable information
USE OF EXAMPLES	Does not include any references to session material or relevant personal experiences	Includes at least one reference to session material and/or relevant personal experiences	Makes thoughtful references to previous or current session material and/or relevant personal experiences
CONTRIBUTION TO LEARNING COMMUNITY	Does not critically engage with key ideas from the session material or the perspectives of fellow participants	Engages with ideas from the session material or the perspectives of fellow participants and makes a positive contribution to the conversation	Offers critical analysis of session material or key theme or existing post(s) which deepens or extends the conversation
TONE (Forum Posts)	Is negative or flat in tone or impolite	Has elements of a positive, supportive, or professional tone	Has a positive, supportive, and professional tone

*Source: EdTech Leaders Online | Building Capacity through Online Learning